

LIFT MIC

The Ohio Department of Higher Education Ohio Means Internships and Co-ops program funds co-located student internships in advanced manufacturing.

Benefits to Students:

- Gain hands-on educational opportunities working on real-world industry projects
- Earn competitive hourly wages from participating companies
- Receive $1,000 scholarship as part of of internship
- Open doors to future employment
- Receive academic credit or transcript notation at completion

“One of the things I admired about Adam was his eagerness to ‘get his hands dirty’ and actually build stuff he had designed.”
- Josh Dudley, Abrasive Technology, Inc.